2014 CHARDONNAY
 SANTA LUCIA HIGHLANDS
Santa Lucia Highlands Appellation

WINEMAKER NOTES

Brilliant yellow hue. Lovely scents of fig, apricot, grapefruit, and lemon lead the profile while notes of honey, cloves, and dried herbs add subtle complexity. Upon taste there is a rush of lemon meringue, apricot, and honey. Vibrant acidity, yet silky texture, counter-balance each other, ending in a custard-like richness to this blend. There is a soulful and engaging element to the finish of the wine, which keeps the taster coming back for more. Enjoy now through 2022.

APPELLATION

Working closely with the top vineyards in the Santa Lucia Highlands' appellation, Testarossa has produced yet another distinctive vintage of this highly anticipated Pinot Noir. The Highlands is one of the state's best known regions for world-class Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. The area's close proximity to Monterey Bay makes for a very cool climate, with one of California's longest growing seasons. The resulting slow, gentle ripening allows for full flavor development on the vine. Testarossa's production team's partnership with the best estates in the Santa Lucia Highlands ensure only the highest quality fruit makes it to the winery.

WINERY

Testarossa (Italian for "red head") was the nickname given Rob Jensen as a young university student in Italy. Rob and Diana Jensen started Testarossa in their garage in 1993 with just twenty-five cases of wine. Today, the label has grown to national prominence among collectors by cultivating long-term partnerships with passionate winegrowers and vineyards.
